- A. The member has been accepted as a member only whilst the member's account remains in credit.
- B. The company and the member agree to the terms and conditions of such membership as hereinafter set out.
- C. The company complies with the National Privacy Principles and requires members to abide by such Privacy Principles.
- D. The member agrees with the Policies of TICA as advised on the TICA website (www.tica.com.au) and that such policies form part of this agreement.

IT IS AGREED THAT:

- 1) The contract period is 12 months – corporate members will be invoiced monthly & payment is required by the due date to ensure uninterrupted continuation of services.
- 2) Whilst the member is a financial member the company shall provide to the member (and other financial members) such information as it has been furnished by any other member or members as to the tenancy record of any individual tenant or proposed tenant.
- 3) This membership allows debt collection agents, credit providers and related persons to search the TICA database to locate individuals.
- 4) The company does not guarantee that other members of the company will co-operate with debt collection agents or related persons.
- 5) The company shall be entitled to vary the annual subscription fee.
- 6) In the event that the monies due to the company by a member are not paid by or upon the dates herein provided. The member may be suspended and until all monies for arrears are paid, shall not be entitled to the benefit of any information from the company. Furthermore, should a member be suspended for non-payment then along with all arrears for reinstatement the member shall pay to the company a fee of thirty three dollars ($33.00) including $3.00 GST.
- 7) The company shall be entitled to refuse membership to any company, person, corporation or partnership without needing to provide any reasons for such refusal and may suspend membership in the event of a member not complying with the Privacy Act.
- 8) The member agrees that membership is subject to the policies of TICA which are available on our website at www.tica.com.au
- 9) The member will not provide the I.D. Number or Password to any other company, corporation or partnership for access to TICA. The member further agrees to only use TICA for his or her own purpose.
- 10) Enquiries via the internet are free of any charges. Enquiries made by phone will be charged at the rate as specified by the company at the time.
- 11) TICA & CreditSoft Solutions reserve the right to amend or alter this agreement.
